

Curriculum Vitae

Olga Remick

Georgia Institute of Technology
Department of Psychology, 654 Cherry Street
Atlanta, GA 30332
Email: okostenko3@gatech.edu

Education:

08/10/2008

M.S. Research Psychology
University of Tennessee at Chattanooga
Advisor: Dr. Richard L. Metzger
Master's Thesis: Modified lag task: A question of validity

12/12/2005

B.S. Psychology
University of Tennessee at Chattanooga
Advisor: Dr. Nicky Ozbek

Interests:

Cognitive control in learning
Neurophysiology of cognitive control
Rule-based and probabilistic category learning
Cue competition in category learning

Teaching Experience:

2006 - 2008

Research methods lab instructor
Statistics lab instructor
Cognitive psychology lab instructor

2009 – 2011

Research methods TA
Introductory psychology TA
Introductory statistics TA

Psychology Research Experience:

Research Assistant:
2006-2008

- Research in backward priming (data collection, analysis, paper editing)
- Research in memory, olfaction, and breast cancer (data collection)
- Research in Big Five and faking ability (data collection)
- Research in working memory (experiment design, data collection, data analysis)
- Research in category learning (experiment design, data collection, data analysis).

Presentations:

Feb. 2010: Aging Brown Bag presentation
 Mar. 2011: CBS Brown Bag presentation
 Oct. 2011: CBS Brown Bag presentation

Relevant Work Experience:

Internship: 2009
 Blue Cross Blue Shield of Tennessee
 Survey Analytics and Accreditation Department
 Survey development, building predictive models with SAS Minor and SAS Enterprise

Relevant Skills:

Office Suit, SPSS, SAS Minor, SAS Enterprise, E-Prime, EyeLink.

Honors and Awards:

2004
 Golden Key Honor Society

2004, 2005
 The National Deans List

2005
 Outstanding Senior Award

2006
 Alpha Society Scholarship

2008
 Outstanding Graduate Student Award